

PRESS RELEASE

THE ANGUILLA AIR AND SEA PORTS AUTHORITY

MOVEMENT OF ST. MAARTEN AND ANGUILLIAN NATIONALS AND RESIDENTS BETWEEN ANGUILLA (BLOWING POINT PORT) AND ST. MAARTEN (SIMPSON BAY POLICE STATION DOCK) FROM THURSDAY, 28 SEPTEMBER 2017

The Board, Management and Staff of the Anguilla Air and Sea Ports Authority (AASPA) would like to inform the travelling public that the Blowing Point Ferry Port will temporarily resume operations on a limited basis from Thursday, 28 September 2017. The Port will be open from 9am until 4pm. Daily, a vessel will depart the Blowing Point Port at 9:45am and depart St. Maarten at 2:45pm.

In conjunction with the St. Maarten (Dutch) authorities, it is agreed that travel between St. Maarten and Anguilla will be limited to the following:

- To St. Maarten from Anguilla – St. Maarten nationals and residents living/visiting in Anguilla who wish to return to St. Maarten; or
- Passengers in Anguilla who are transferring through St. Maarten for departure to another destination must have a copy of their travel itinerary available to the St. Maarten Immigration agent; and
- To Anguilla from St. Maarten – Anguilla nationals and residents (living/visiting/in-transit) in St. Maarten who wish to return to Anguilla.

The AASPA is very cognizant and sensitive to the devastation left by Hurricane Irma on both islands and seeks the understanding and patience of the general public in complying with these travel guidelines.

Travellers who fit the specifications above and wish to travel from Anguilla to St. Maarten should contact Mr. Rosmond Davis of Calypso Charters at 1-264-476-8504. Nationals and residents of Anguilla living/visiting/in-transit in St. Maarten who wish to travel to Anguilla should contact Ms. Jasmin Rondi, Agent for Calypso Charters at 1-721-554-3188.

Additionally, persons in Anguilla who do not fit the specifications above, but have cargo in St. Maarten to be picked up, should also contact Mr. Davis to make arrangements. For further information, please contact the Blowing Point Port Manager, Mr. Joseph Rogers at 1-264-584-9643 or 1-264-476-9643 as the usual departure fees are applicable.
